As we pen this report, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to the college management for providing the necessary help and motivation, without which Gedu Festival (G-Fest) could not have evolved into the resounding success that it became. G-Fest was conceived as a testament to these ideals, a platform where students could showcase their talents and connect with the broader business community. From the very inception of this idea, the college management has been the guiding light, providing valuable insights, unwavering motivation, and the necessary guidance. The fourth edition of G-Fest was a great success under the supervisions of Mrs. Manju Shree Pradhan and Mr. Chenchu Wangchuk, who took charge of it later when the former was on her maternity leave. Their never-ending guidance and support have immensely guided the organization of the festival.

Importantly, we would like to acknowledge and thank the Prime Minister's Office, Royal Institute for Governance and Strategic Studies (RIGSS), the alumni of our College, Bajra Builders, Bhutan Mines and Minerals Limited, Druk Polymers Limited, Sersang Private Limited, Bhutan Agro Industries Limited, IBEST consultancy, National Pension and Provident Fund (NPPF), Druk Holding Investment (DHI), Kuensel, the Universal Education Consultancy and Placement Firm, the local community of Gedu, SK Consultancy, Bhutan Chamber of Commerce and Industry (BCCI), Tashi InfoComm Limited, Bhutan Power Corporation limited (BPC), KUKU grand hotel, gold fish resort, Deki Restaurant in Gelephu, New Age Technology Private Limited, Bhutan National Bank (BNB), and GIC Bhutan for their generous sponsorship, which played a pivotal role in realizing this event. Their substantial support, both in terms of financial backing and endorsement, has been instrumental in making this event a grand success.

It is impossible to overstate the importance of the sponsors who joined hands with us on this journey. Their contributions were the pillars upon which G-Fest stood tall and proud. We express our profound gratitude to each sponsor, who not only provided financial support but also enriched the festival with their wisdom and expertise.

In particular, we must mention the alumni of our college, whose financial support and guidance were invaluable. Their experience and mentorship were instrumental in shaping G-Fest into a world-class event. The local community of Gedu also deserves special recognition for its unwavering support, underscoring the strong bond between the college and the town it calls home.

Beyond financial support, Mid-cloud Studio's technical assistance added a layer of professionalism and finesse to the event. This partnership broadened the festival's reach, making it accessible to a global audience and enhancing its appeal. We would also like to extend our gratitude to the judges and all the participants who made the event competitive, engaging, and insightful. Your presence and contributions made the event truly remarkable.

The success of G-Fest extended far beyond the festival's duration. It had a lasting impact on the college, its students, and the entire community. Students were not only provided with a platform to exhibit their talents but were also exposed to invaluable real-world experiences and connections. Not only did the festival celebrate the power of collaboration, but also exemplified the potential that can be unlocked when academia and the corporate world unite for a common cause.

As we reflect on the success of G-Fest, we look forward to continued collaboration with our sponsors, our college management, and all the individuals and organizations that made this event possible. G-Fest was not just a festival; it was a testament to the boundless potential that can be unleashed when passionate individuals come together to support a shared vision.

In conclusion, G-Fest now stands as a testament to the power of collaboration and the endless possibilities that lie ahead. This success story is not just about the festival but about the celebration of unity, dedication, and the spirit of learning. We extend our heartfelt appreciation to all who made this journey possible and look forward to many more successes in the future. Thank you for your generosity and belief in our mission!

Gedu Festival

Theme: Building a Resilient Future Economy: Fostering Innovation, Sustainability, and Future Economy

Building a Resilient Future Economy: Fostering Innovation, Sustainability, and Future Economy emphasizes how important it is to set up an economic structure that can change with the times and prosper in a world that is constantly evolving. It entails encouraging innovation to spur economic expansion and technical breakthroughs while also placing a high priority on sustainability to guarantee resource conservation and environmental stewardship. With innovation and sustainability working together as key pillars for a robust and flourishing future economy, the goal is to foster a forward-thinking economy that can endure setbacks, embrace new trends, and bring forth lasting prosperity for future generations.

Background

G- Festis a brainchild of a group of students, who had conceived it as an important student-initiative in 2016. However, they could realize their conception only in 2017. Hence, this initiative still creates platforms for students and nurtures their academic, intellectual and social talents through various competitive events. It also gives the organizing team and its volunteers opportunities to learn organizational skills. After the second and third editions of the festival, we could not organize it for two years owing to the Covid-19 pandemic restrictions. This year we revived it, the fourth edition, after the gap of three years.

Vision: Lending a hand to prepare scholars for their professional careers

Mission statements:

- To increase and stimulate innovative business ideas among students and enhance their entrepreneurial skills;
- To sponsor talks, conferences, and symposia that expose students to intellectual and cultural exchanges; and
- To equip students with appropriate business knowledge, skills and values to cope with the 21st century challenges.

Objectives:

- To unravel diverse business ideas;
- To broaden the horizon of learning and acquire new skills; and
- To provide the platform to exhibit the participants' creative talents.

Welcome Speech

Honorable Chief Guest, respected Deputy President, Director of College Operations, esteemed faculty members from various institutions, and dear friends, I stand before you as Bal BdrGayalal, one of the organizers of the fourth edition of the G-Fest 2023. It is with great pleasure and a sense of profound responsibility that I extend a warm and heartfelt welcome to each one of you.

Welcome to Gedu Festival, the International Business Literary Festival. This is a gathering of intellects and a celebration of ideas. From the 19th to the 21st of October 2023, we converge here, representing six esteemed colleges within Bhutan and one from India. This event is a testament to the unity of knowledge, learning, and creativity. The journey of G-Fest has been nothing short of remarkable. Conceived in 2017 by visionary students from Gedu College of Business Studies, the festival unfolded its inaugural chapter in 2017. It stood resilient through the years, a symbol of collective vision and tenacity. The pause in 2020-2022, prompted by global challenges, underscored our commitment to prioritizing the safety and well-being of our participants.

Today, with immense pride, we announce the reinvigoration of G-Fest with its 4th edition in 2023, guided by the theme, “Building a Resilient Future Economy: Fostering Innovation, Sustainability, and Global Prosperity.” This theme holds deep significance, urging us to collectively strive towards a future that is sustainable, innovative, and prosperous in the face of challenges.

We are honored by the presence of our Chief Guest, the Deputy Chief of DGPC, and distinguished leaders, faculty members, and aspiring students. Your presence elevates the significance of this festival, adding a layer of prestige to this occasion.

As we embark on the grandeur of G-Fest 2023, carefully curated events await. These events, numbering eight, unfold concurrently, offering a platform for sharing insights, debating ideas, and challenging conventions. They serve as a crucible of diverse perspectives, nurturing intellectual growth and fostering a culture of learning and collaboration. To all participants, I extend my heartfelt wishes for a truly enriching experience. May these next three days be filled with not just knowledge but also with the forging of meaningful connections and friendships. Let us collectively embrace the spirit of resilience and innovation as we envision a future economy that is not just robust but compassionate.

Once again, a sincere and warm welcome to G-Fest 2023. Let the festival of ideas and knowledge commence!

Thank you!

Event Details

The event took place from the 19th to 21st of October 2023, so, the Public Relations (PR) team started receiving the participants from various colleges from within Bhutan on 18th October. The participants from Shri Ram College of Commerce reached Gedu on 19th October. The attendees were given a warm welcome by the PR team along with a few lecturers, and the day ended with opening dinner followed by a short briefing on do's and don'ts during their three-day stay.

Opening Ceremony

The Opening Ceremony, held on October 19th, was a truly remarkable event. Sushil Adhikari, the Deputy Chief of the Druk Green Power Corporation, honored us as the esteemed Chief Guest. The day commenced with the melodious tunes of Marchang, followed by the resounding rendition of the National Anthem. Bal BdrGayalal, in his enlightening address, delved into both the historical significance of the occasion and the promising prospects for the future.

Similarly, the esteemed Chief Guest emphasized the values of curiosity, innovation, and self-belief, inspiring all in attendance. The cultural performances by the college cultural troupe further heightened the excitement by their awe-inspiring display of talents.

Embracing Economic Transformation

Theme: Educating people and understanding the concept of economic transformation

Event Coordinators: Narayan Adhikari and Kheni Maya Pokhrel

Event description:

Embracing Economic Transformation, which was held on 19th October, 2023, featured four notable panelists: Mr. Justin Sim (Chairman of GCBS& CST), Mrs. Tshering Pelden (Executive Director of S.K Consultancy), Mr. Kelzang Jigten (Regional Secretary of Bhutan Chamber of Commerce and Industry), and Mr. Pema Yoezer (Officiating Director of the Royal Monetary Authority). The discussion was moderated by Mr. Sherab Dorji, the news editor and anchor of Bhutan Broadcasting Service.

Twenty- Forty

Theme: Creating value in the community

Event coordinators: Yeshey Singye and Sonam Chophel

Event description:

Twenty-Forty was an engaging and educative business challenge designed specifically for students, drawing inspiration from the wisdom shared in the book "What I Wish I Knew When I Was 20." This competition encourages students to put their entrepreneurial acumen to the test by providing each participating team with a seed fund of Nu.500. Their mission is to develop a viable business idea that not only grows this initial investment but also offers valuable insights into the realities of entrepreneurship.

Taking place over the course of a week, Twenty Forty pushes young entrepreneurs to brainstorm, strategize, and implement their creative ideas, all in an effort to multiply their seed funds. This unique challenge aims to do more than just promote entrepreneurship; it's a dynamic learning experience that encourages students to apply the principles of entrepreneurship and innovation they've learned from the book and in their academic studies. By fostering critical thinking, collaboration, and calculated risk-taking, the challenge equips students with practical skills that extend beyond the classroom and into the ever-changing landscape of business. "Twenty Forty" serves as a platform for students to nurture their entrepreneurial spirit, providing them with both the knowledge and confidence to transform their creative ideas into successful ventures. It is an enriching and transformative educational experience, enabling students to be better prepared for the challenges and opportunities they may encounter in the real world of business.

Participants: All seven colleges (the team of 6 to 7 members from each college)
 Winner: Institute of Science and Mind
 Runner-up: Shri Ram College of Commerce

Empowering voices

Topic: The transformative role of technology in Bhutan: Exploring the impacts of emerging technologies on innovation, entrepreneurship, and social dynamics

Event Coordinators: Bal Krishna Sapkota, Doot Kumar Ghalley, and Chitra Maya Sunwar

Event description:

Empowering Voices is a panel discussion, and the panelists were the student-representatives of each participating college. The topic for discussion included economic sustainability, digital transformation and entrepreneurship, healthcare, education and culture, and risks associated with technological advancements, for instance. Notably, the discussion explored the growing significance of cryptocurrency and blockchain.

The overarching theme that emerged from the discussion was the positive impact of technology on different aspects of our lives. However, the participants emphasized the need for a balanced approach that preserves culture and uses technology as a tool rather than a replacement for human creativity. This balance was considered essential to ensure that technology empowers voices and fosters innovation while also addressing potential risks and maintaining cultural identity. The panel concluded by highlighting the importance of coexisting with technology and culture harmoniously so that they empower individuals and societies on a global scale.

Participants: One member from each college
 Winner: Shri Ram College of Commerce
 Runner-up: Sherubtse College

Tug the Brain

Theme: For a better future; create it now

Event Coordinator: Ritu Raj Ghalley and Tshering Tobgyal

Event description:

Tug the Brain showcased a captivating intercollegiate debate featuring 7 talented participants, each representing a different college. The competition comprised three intense rounds, designed to challenge the participants' debating skills and intellectual prowess. In each round, participant had the opportunity to eloquently share their perspective on their respective topics and refute within a concise timeframe. This segment allowed them to present their arguments, knowledge, and communication skills to captivate the audience and judges.

The second round introduced a dynamic twist as it was dedicated to refuting the arguments put forth by the opposing team, allowing each participant just three minutes to effectively counter their opponents' viewpoints. The final rounds lasted two minutes each. In the final round participants from Gedu College of Business Studies and Shri Ram College of Commerce were pitted against each other. These finalists showcased the culmination of their debate skills and knowledge, demonstrating their ability to articulate, persuade, and defend their positions. The competition served as a platform for academic rigor, critical thinking, and the spirited exchange of ideas, highlighting the intellectual excellence present among the participating colleges.

Participants: One participant from each college
 Winner: Shri Ram College of Commerce
 Runner-up: Gedu College of Business Studies

Mind Mingle

Theme: Journey through Knowledge

Event Coordinators: Pema Dechen Tamang and Pelden Singye

Event Description:

Mind mingle is a quiz that delved into the profound impacts of technology on innovation, entrepreneurship, and social dynamics. The program brought together two participants each from seven colleges excluding the three judges and the quiz master, who oversaw the event. Together they created a vibrant intellectual atmosphere in the auditorium. As per the format of the quiz, the participants chose a number from the pool of 10 sets of questions. Each selected number corresponded to a set of 10 questions that participants had to solve within a challenging seven-minute timeframe.

Participants: Two students from each college
Winner: Gedu College of Business Studies
Runner-up: College of Language and Culture Studies

Story Board

Theme: Digital Horizons: Unleashing the Potential of Storyboard in Digital Marketing
Event Coordinators: Kinley Penjor Bomjan and Yamuna Ghalley

Event Description:

Digital being the influencer in today's world, the storyboard event was developed with a theme of "unleashing the potential of storyboard". The event was designed to acknowledge and embrace the importance of storyboard in the field of marketing. Each participating college was represented by 4 members and had to develop a storyboard on the given private companies (sponsors of G-Fest) within the allotted time of 40 minutes and present their idea in 5 minutes. This helps the participants to come up with creative and appealing stories within a short span of time and to pitch their ideas effectively by being precise and attractive. The event was graced by 2 judges who shared their views on the storyboard being imperative in different areas such as films and marketing.

Participants: Four members from each college
Winner: Shri Ram College of Commerce
Runners up: Norbuling Rigter College

ME2 Business Tycoon

Theme: The Power of Entrepreneurship: Thriving in a Changing World

Event Coordinators: Tshering Lhamo and Tenzin Yangsel

Event Description:

Me2 Business Tycoon was a declamation, where participants had to select a business idol each and then delivered their speeches. The event offered the participants opportunities to learn more about those successful business figures and develop oratorical and imitative skills. It also intended to inspire the next generation of entrepreneurs and business leaders through those declamatory speeches.

During the declamation, each participant embodied the persona of well-known business figures. As intended, they demonstrated a deep understanding of business concepts, displayed confidence and charisma on stage besides effectively conveying their intended messages to the audience.

The participants choose the following impressions.

Sl. No	Name of College	Business Entrepreneurs
1	College of Language and Culture Studies	Kristen Hall
2	Gedu College of Business Studies	Jack Ma
3	Institute of Science of Mind	Steve Job
4	Jigme Namgyal Engineering College	Sadira Yeong
5	Sherubtse College	Karma Yonten
6	Sheri Ram College of Commerce	Sundra Pichai
7	NorbulingRigter College	Indra Nooyi

Participants: One student from each college

Winner: Sherubtse College

Runner-up: Norbuling Rigter College

Closing ceremony

The closing day was marked with awarding of certificates and prizes to the winners and the participating colleges. It was graced by Dasho Chewang Rinzin, the Director of Royal Institute for Governance and Strategic Studies (RIGSS).

Vote of Thanks

Today, as we gather here to bring the curtains down on the remarkable three-day G-fest, an international businessliteracy festival, that has enriched our hearts and minds, it is with immense gratitude and a profound sense of fulfillment that I, Dechen Lhaden, on behalf of the G-Fest organizing committee stand before you to extend our heartfelt gratitude.

G-Fest has been an extraordinary journey for all of us – organizers, participants, and our audience. Each event that unfolded over these three days has been an incredible experience for our team. Also, it has been a knowledge-filled adventure for the participants and those in attendance as well. From thought-provoking discussions to captivating performances, G-Fest has truly been a melting pot of ideas and creativity, where learning and innovation blended seamlessly.

First and foremost, we would like to thank our event advisors Mr. Chencho Wangchuk and Ma'am Manju Shree, who have helped us to bring our vision into a reality. We couldn't have embarked on this incredible journey without the unwavering support of our college management. Despite being a fully student-initiated event, they stood by us offering guidance, encouragement, and resources. We express our deepest gratitude for their trust in our vision and leadership.

Secondly, the main bloodline of our festival was our sponsors, and they deserve a special mention. We are deeply honored and profoundly grateful to the Prime Minister's Office for its invaluable financial support for the festival. Moreover, it is with immense pleasure that we acknowledge the support from the following organizations, firms, or individuals:

- Royal Institute for Governance and Strategic Studies (RIGSS)
- The alumni of our college for not only financially supporting us but also guiding us throughout this event.
- Bajra Builders
- Bhutan Mines and Minerals Limited
- Druk Polymers Limited
- Sersang private limited
- Bhutan Agro Industries Limited
- IBEST consultancy
- National Pension and Provident Fund (NPPF)
- Druk Holding Investment (DHI)
- Kuensel Corporation
- The Universal Education Consultancy and Placement Firm
- The local community of Gedu
- SK Consultancy
- Bhutan Chamber of Commerce and Industry (BCCI)
- Tashi InfoComm Limited
- Bhutan power corporation limited (BPC)
- KUKU grand hotel, gold fish resort, Deki restaurant in Gelephu
- New Age Technology Private Limited
- Bhutan National Bank (BNB)
- GIC Bhutan

We would also like to thank all our judges for your sacrifices. We are also grateful to our Mid-Cloud Studio team for your technical support, which added extra charm to our event and increased the reach of our event to our global audience.

Your financial and in-kind contributions have been instrumental in making this event possible. It represents a vote of confidence in our vision and purpose of our festival. Thank you so much to all the sponsors!

Now, we would also like to extend our sincere gratitude to the most important and crucial members of this event without whom this event would not have taken place. They are the participants who have traveled from their respective colleges to be part of this festival. We thank the management, students and escorts of:

1. College of Language and Culture Studies
2. Jigme Namgyel Engineering College
3. Institute of Science of Mind
4. Norbuling Rigter College
5. Sherubtse College
6. Gedu College of Business Studies
7. Shri Ram College of Commerce

To all the participants, your presence and involvements have left an indelible mark in our hearts and memories and made this event a success.

We thank you all!

Behind the scenes, our event advisors and coordinators, as well as the dedicated volunteers, have worked really hard. Their tireless efforts, sleepless nights, and unwavering commitment have been the backbone of this G-fest. We thank you for your dedication.

And in this closing ceremony, we would like to express our deep appreciation to our Chief Guest, the Director of RIGGS, for gracing us with your presence. We are also grateful to our audience for being with us throughout the festival. Lastly, we congratulate all the winning teams and all other colleges because you are taking something bigger than the prize, which are knowledge, exposure, experience, and friendship.

Kadrenchey la!
